Information	Equality and Human Rights Commission The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHCR) is providing funding to organisations concerned with promoting equality and diversity, good relations and human rights. A consultation regarding its permanent funding scheme will be launched in April 2008. In the meantime, for 2008/09 an Interim Funding programme is being made available which will provide access to support for eligible organisations during this important period of consultation and development. Three broad Priority Areas have been developed to offer the flexibility applicants may need to cater for particular local needs and demands. The funding Priority Areas for 2008/09 are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Promoting Good Relations • Promoting Equality and Human Rights • Casework To receive funding, organisations must explain how their project will achieve real and meaningful change. You can apply for funding for up to three outcomes. These are the changes you plan to achieve in the short-term, medium-term and/or long-term as a result of your activities or services in your chosen area of work. The maximum an organisation can apply for under each outcome is £40,000 and the maximum that can be applied for in any one application is £120,000. You must make sure that your application does not exceed this amount. Funding is available for a twelve-month period, commencing 1 April 2008 but organisations are unlikely to be funded if they represent only one particular group, unless they are seeking funds to widen their work to cover individuals or groups from other backgrounds. The deadline for applications is 5pm, February 4, 2008. Successful organisations will be announced on March 31, 2008
Contact Details	An application pack including guidance notes, FAQ's and good-practice examples are all provided on the website at http://www.equalityhumanrights.com/en/aboutus/grants/pages/grantsandfunding.aspx If you require a printed application pack please contact the grants team Tel: 020 3117 0235 or email: grants@equalityhumanrights.com

Information	Tesco Charity Trust The Tesco Charity Trust has been in existence since 1987. Its Community Awards ensure that the majority of the Trust's grants are targeted towards local communities where they have stores. Each year they aim to give around £600,000 through this scheme via one-off donations that range between £1,000 and £5,000. Community Awards benefit local organisations through two categories; <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. those whose core work supports children's education and welfare and, 2. those who support children and adults with disabilities, and elderly people. Applications deadlines depend on which category of award you are applying under. For grants to support children's welfare and children's education applications are welcome until the 31st January and again from 1st May to 30th June 2008. For grants to support elderly people and/or people with disabilities applications are invited between 1st February and 31st March and again from 1st August to 31st September 2008. Applications can be made by registering and completing the on-line application form.

Information	The King's Fund's - Partners for Health in London Partners for Health in London is the King's Fund's new funding programme and replaces the small and development grants. Funding of around £1 million each year will be shared between four specific areas of work, selected because significant health needs are still unmet. The 4 funding areas are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • end-of-life care • mental health advocacy • sexual health for black and minority ethnic communities • integrated health (research project) Development support will be provided to successful applicants, with a special focus on evaluation, as the Kings Fund aims to become a more active partner by developing new ways of working across the four health areas identified. Therefore, their expectation is that applicants will apply to the Partners for Health programme because of their desire to learn and influence as well as improve health. A specific challenge has been set for each health area. They are looking for projects that address one of these challenges, and they can fund costs of up to £150,000 spread over up to three years. The deadline for the next funding round is Friday, 8 February 2008 in the areas of end-of-life care, mental health advocacy and sexual health and Friday 28 March 2008 in integrated health.

Information	Spark Spark is an innovative project developed by Communities and Local Government, The TREES Group, Big Issue Invest (part of The Big Issue group) and Eastside Consulting to build and inspire social enterprise to prevent homelessness. It aims to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • scale-up existing social enterprises; • support the creation of new enterprises within existing organisations; • and share skills, resources and experience between the public, corporate and third sectors. Social enterprise offers an alternative to dependency on grants and donations, which can sometimes offer little long term security for their organisations or for the homeless people they serve. Spark's aim is to provide finance and coaching to support the growth of social enterprise in the homelessness sector and so help more homeless people to move towards independent living, through training and employment. It has a prize fund of £500,000 provided by Communities and Local Government to invest in organisations preventing or tackling homelessness. Successful applicants can also win mentoring, an enterprise 'makeover' and potential investment of up to £500,000 from Big Issue Invest. Between January 21 and February 1 consultants are available to talk through your application over the phone. Applications close February, 18 2008.
