

MiNet is London's only regional Black Asian and Minority Ethnic (BAME) network working to strengthen the voice of London's BAME third sector. Working with London's BAME Voluntary and Community Sector (VCS) organisations, MiNet operates to encourage the effective engagement of BAME organisations in London's regional policy.

London's BAME Third Sector: Managing the Economic Downturn Event

NCVO, 8 All Saints Street, London, N1 9RL

Tuesday 30th June 2009: 09:30 – 4.30pm

Speakers will include Lisa Greensill, Communities and Third Sector Team Leader, Government Office for London, Ian Redding, Head of Grants, London Councils, Ibukun Olashore, Director, Organisation of Blind Africans and Caribbean's and Dr Theo Gavrielides, Race on the Agenda. Workshop coordinators: Jill Walsh, Senior Regional Manager, CapacityBuilders, Sona Mahtani, Chief Executive, Selby Trust, Terrence Simmons, Project Manager, Croydon BME Forum and Ann Blackmore, Head of Campaigns and Communications, NCVO.

For event details or to register for a place online, visit MiNet's webpage at http://www.rota.org.uk/pages/MiNet\_Activities.aspx.

Improving support for a stronger third sector

